Tshombe Charges U.N. Agression In Katanga Fuss

ELISABETHVILLE, Katanga, the Congo (AP)—President Moise Tshombe today accused the United Nations of "odious aggression" in a speech at a meeting of the Provincial Assembly called to consider his agreement to end Katanga's secession from the Congo.

After the president's speech, which took strong exception to two of the agreement's eight parts, the Assembly president announced the matter would be referred to a special commission.

Tshombe said "the United Nations' clumsy intervention under U.S. pressure" in Katanga last month had not helped relations with the central government.

"We did not go to New York to fight the United Nations, but they came here," he said.

He finally asked for a cease-fire "not because we were tired of fighting for our freedom but simply because the Katanga government wanted to put an end to the killings and carnage," he declared.

Only 35 of the assembly members were present.

Nine opposition deputies from the Balubakat party were among those present. There would have been 36 members present, but one stomped out angrily when there was a delay of 90 minutes in opening the session.

The Assembly failed to begin debate on schedule Wednesday when only 19 members showed up. If all seats were filled the Assembly would have 72 members, including 12 appointed chiefs.

Congo President Joseph Kasavubu, in a conflicting move, has called upon the Assembly to meet at Kamina, U.N. airbase in northern Katanga. Several opposition Balubakat deputies from the north were reported afraid to show themselves in Elisabethville.

In an eight-point pact with Congo Premier Cyrille Adoula on Dec. 21, Tshombe agreed to end Katanga's secession, but later declared the agreement was not binding until ratified by the Assembly.

Glenn Must Wait for His Orbit Attempt

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. will have to wait at least an additional week before an attempt is made to rocket him aloft as the first American to orbit the earth.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration Wednesday postponed the launching from Jan. 16 to Jan. 23 because of a minor fueling problem with the Atlas booster rocket.

The word came from reliable sources close to the Mercury Project. NASA, which is not announced any date for the launching, declined comment on the report.

The informants said the difficulty could be corrected with only a day or two delay but that NASA officials decided to call a seven-day hold to make a complete check.

Glenn, 40, reportedly was disappointed by the postponement, the second time for the launching. He was not available for comment.

The Marine lieutenant colonel originally was slated to make the orbit trip on Dec. 20 as the space agency pushed to achieve the flight in 1961, the same year the Soviet Union succeeded in orbiting two cosmonauts. But with pressure mounting and time running out, NASA decided to put the firing off until January.

Glenn's spacecraft, which was placed atop the Atlas Wednesday, is intended to whirl three times around the world in 4½ hours at a speed of 17,500 miles an hour.

Viet Nam Plans Anti-Red Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States and South Viet Nam will announce tonight a joint economic program designed to stiffen South Viet Nam's resistance to Communist subversion.

The new program includes many of the economic reforms recommended last summer by a U.S. mission headed by Dr. Eugene Stanley of the Stanford Research Institute.

The program is designed to strengthen South Viet Nam's fiscal operations, eliminate corruption and waste and put more funds into the government treasury to help it finance the expanded campaign against Communist Viet Cong guerrillas.

Mikoyan Begins Trip

MOSCOW (AP)—First Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan left by plane today for an official visit to the West African republic of Guinea and talks with President Sekou Toure.

Deputy Foreign Minister Alexander Orlov and several other ranking Soviet officials accompanied Mikoyan, the official Soviet news agency Tass reported.

Two New Army Divisions Need 8 Months Intensive Training

WASHINGTON AP — The two new regular Army divisions are expected to be established by the end of March, but it will take about eight months of intensive training before they can be declared ready to fight.

President Kennedy announced Wednesday he had approved immediate formation of the two divisions, the 1st Armored and the 5th Mechanized Infantry. They will bring the regular Army force to 16 divisions.

Officials said today the term "immediate" was relative. They noted that certain advance arrangements must be made, including the mustering of a framework of officers and noncommissioned officers and housekeeping preparations to receive the troops at Ft. Hood, Tex., and Ft. Carson, Colo.

The Pentagon has ticketed a group of regular armored, infantry and artillery units to become the nucleus for the two divisions. Together, they total about 10,500 men. At full strength, the new divisions will number about 31,700 men in all.

The 21,000 soldiers need to fill the divisions' ranks will be drafted from units that have finished eight weeks of basic training. Defense authorities said they do not expect to raise draft calls.

After the new outfits are brought up to strength, they will be put through a cycle of advanced individual training, basic unit training, division drills and field maneuvers. Only then will they be considered combat ready.

A Pentagon spokesman said the Army hopes to have the 1st Armored and 5th Infantry in fighting shape before the end of this year.

Kennedy said creation of the two added regular units will permit the return to civilian life later this year of two National Guard divisions ordered to active duty last Oct. 15. These are the 32nd Infantry of Wisconsin and the 49th Armored of Texas.

Officials said there will be some overlap. Under present law, Kennedy could hold the Wisconsin and Texas divisions in uniform until Oct. 15, but Pentagon officials had been hoping to release the 32nd and 49th by June 30. Some smaller units may be demobilized before then.

The Army has estimated it would cost some $70 million to organize, equip and maintain two more divisions in the remaining six months of this fiscal year. Officials said this can be done out of funds already in hand.

The cost for the next fiscal year has been calculated at about $165 million. Money requests for this purpose will be included in the new defense budget, due to go to Congress later this month.

Once Around Roundtown

A GLANCE at Pickaway County in yesteryears through the notes of historian Mac Noggle: . . . A thriving village just west of Circleville known as Spunketown had a couple of distilleries, a carding mill and a large woolen cloth factory. . .

Congo Flood Waters Recede

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Congo River flood waters are receding, the U.N. Command reported today, and large-scale relief operations are under way to repair damage from the worst flood in the river's recorded history.

The crisis point now is Matadi, near the Atlantic, where the rampant river has cut off the port from the town. All shipping has been halted.

"We expect this situation to start easing by the weekend," said Alessandro Corradini, the U.N. flood relief director, "so that we will be able to reactivate river traffic—the lifeline to the interior."

A barge train of supplies is being prepared—paid for by a $10,000 check from the U.S. government—to carry provisions to Coquilhatville and dozens of jungle villages cut off by the torrents for the past fortnight or more.

The U.S. Air Force is flying five power generators from Europe to flooded towns to get basic communications and essential electric installations working.

Two Soviet plane loads of medical relief supplies, the first aid the Soviet Union has offered to the Congo since the late Patrice Lumumba was in power, have not yet arrived. One was reported detained at Khartoum, capital of Sudan, because it had no permission to fly over the country and no clearance to land at Khartoum.

Sgt. York Proud Of Granddaughter
PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP)—As her famed grandfather, Sgt. Alvin C. York beamed proudly, 18-year-old Mary Elizabeth York was inducted yesterday into the Women's Air Force.

The special ceremony was held at the bedside of the Tennessee mountain man who won the Medal of Honor for his legendary exploits in World War I.

"I'm mighty proud of Goldie (Mary's nickname)," said York. "I want to thank the Air Force for bringing her here so I could see her sworn in."

"I hope I can make grandpa as proud of me as I am of him," said Mary Elizabeth.

JFK Putting Final Touches On Union Talk

President's Florida Stay Near End; Trip To Columbus Slated

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy concentrated today on weaving together his State of the Union Message—his accounting to Congress of what shape the country is in and what he believes should be done about it.

There were no engagements on Kennedy's program as he neared the end of his sojourn on Florida's sunny coast.

Contrary to previously disclosed plans, signs appeared that Kennedy would leave Palm Beach for Washington late Friday. An announcement on his travel schedule was expected today.

The President will fly to Columbus on Saturday to address a fund-raising birthday dinner for Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. He may go there from Washington instead of directly from Palm Beach, as originally planned.

While in the capital, Kennedy may meet Saturday with Democratic congressional leaders.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson is due back in Washington on Saturday. He left Palm Beach Wednesday for Johnson City, Tex., after he and the administration's top defense officials conferred with Kennedy on Army reorganization and the strategic outlook for 1962.

From their meeting came word that Kennedy has ordered the Army to form two new permanent divisions, one armored and the other mechanized infantry. Their activation should permit troops of Wisconsin's 32nd and Texas' 49th National Guard divisions to go home later this year, Kennedy announced. The 32nd and 49th were called to duty last October as part of the armed forces buildup precipitated by East-West tensions.

Theodore C. Sorensen, special counsel to the President, remained in Palm Beach to assist Kennedy with the State of the Union Message. Congress reconvenes next Wednesday, and Kennedy is expected to deliver the message in person next Thursday or Friday. He has scheduled a news conference for Jan. 15.

Kennedy and the First Lady took Johnson, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Deputy Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the President's special military adviser, for a cruise aboard the yacht Honey Fitz Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Kennedy changed to a blue and white bathing suit and donned a skin-diving jacket for a bit of water skiing. As the Honey Fitz drifted lazily, she whipped gracefully through gentle swells for about five minutes behind a speedboat.

McElroy Headquarters
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy has set up headquarters for his Democratic campaign for governor. He's taken space at 74 S. Third St., across from his Statehouse Annex office.

The cost figures for the period ending Dec. 31, 1961, represented an increase of $18,239,684, or 2.1 per cent, over the total expenditures of $845,403,420 for the same period of 1960, the previous peak for a six-month operation.

Rhodes said December expenditures alone amounted to $153,720,023, a 32.8 per cent increase over the actual expenditures for December of 1960.

Receipts, including federal funds and bond sales authorized by constitutional amendments and subsequent action of the state sinking fund commission, amounted to $884,743,313. But Rhodes said this figure included $74 million in obligations issued by the commission, of which $12 million was in capital improvement bonds and $62 million in major thoroughfare construction bonds.

Rhodes report said that expenditures, together with unpaid obligation of slightly more than $13 million due the teachers' and school employees' retirement systems, as of last November, makes for a total operating deficit of nearly $27.5 million.

White Paper Indicting Cuba As Threat To Be Distributed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department plans wide distribution in Latin America of a new U.S. white paper indicting Cuba as a serious threat to hemisphere security and to non-Communist nations everywhere.

The department had one eye peeled on a forthcoming foreign ministers meeting of the Organization of American States as it made the indictment public Wednesday.

It depicted Cuba as so solidly in the communist sphere that 80 per cent of its foreign trade is with the Soviet bloc and that it has received $60 million to $100 million worth of Soviet bloc arms.

These weapons, the U.S. document said, have enabled Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to support guerrilla operations in other American countries.

The hemisphere foreign ministers will meet Jan. 22 in Punta De Este, Uruguay, to consider possible joint action against Cuba. A two-thirds majority, or 14 votes, will be needed to impose economic or diplomatic sanctions against Cuba. Thirteen American states have broken relations with Cuba. Seven have not.

The white paper actually is a 32-page booklet that was presented last month to the Inter-American Peace Committee investigating alleged human rights violations and subversive activities by the Castro government.

The committee will report to the ministers meeting on the results of its inquiry.

Among the claims made in the document are: —Cuba has turned into an armed camp, with a military establishment of 250,000 to 400,000 men, larger than that of any other Latin American nation.

—Castro has built up a communist-style police state including a massive network of informers.

—At least 300 Soviet and Czech military advisers and technicians have gone to Cuba and about 500 technical advisers on nonmilitary matters have arrived from the communist bloc.

Terrorism Mounts In North Africa

ALGIERS (AP)—The underground French right-wing Secret Army Organization called Wednesday night for a general mobilization of European settlers for a last-ditch fight to keep Algeria French.

Terrorism mounted in the North African territory with 37 persons slain Wednesday in attacks by both Europeans and Moslems, bringing the toll for the first three days of the year to at least 60 dead and more than 130 wounded.

Handbills calling on the settlers to prepare to fight were posted as the belief spread that the way was at last open for an agreement between the De Gaulle government and the Algerian rebels to end the seven-year-old war in Algeria. The handbills gave no further instructions but a pirate radio broadcast earlier in the day predicted victory for the Secret Army in 1962.

Terrorism surged up in most major Algerian cities. The attacks were indiscriminate and followed no particular pattern. It was believed the Moslem nationalists were making a show of strength to influence the secret talks under way for several weeks between the French and the Nationalists. And the European extremists appeared trying to foster the idea that France could not enforce an independence agreement against the French settlers' determined resistance.

Three persons were killed and 30 wounded by grenades thrown into a crowd of Moslems leaving a movie house in Constantine Wednesday night.

In the western port of Oran bands of youths savagely stabbed or beat to death six Moslems in separate attacks after word spread that a pregnant Jewish woman had been wounded by a Moslem Terrorist. The woman later died.

Rebel headquarters in Tunis made a conciliatory gesture in a statement Wednesday declaring: "The provisional Algerian government is animated by a sincere desire to achieve a realistic solution, a solution that would take into account France's interests."

"Independence of the Algerian people and its entire sovereignty over all of its territory should be conciliated with the interests of France."

The statement was distributed as a "political bulletin" by the official rebel agency, Alger Press Service.

Observers in Tunis believed the statement was a forerunner of an announcement concerning the opening of formal peace negotiations between the De Gaulle government and the Nationalists.

High French sources in Paris said the secret talks now going on deal with the possibility of a cease-fire followed by a transitory period leading to Algerian independence.

Record Spending Listed in Ohio For Fiscal Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported today that Ohio closed out the first six months of the fiscal year with a record expenditure of $863,643,104.

The cost figures for the period ending Dec. 31, 1961, represented an increase of $18,239,684, or 2.1 per cent, over the total expenditures of $845,403,420 for the same period of 1960, the previous peak for a six-month operation.

Hint of Talks Fails To Halt Army Buildup

Action against Dutch Looms Unless Jakarta Demands Are Settled

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesia stepped up its arms buildup today off the shores of Dutch-held West New Guinea despite reports that President Sukarno's regime was ready to offer the Netherlands a compromise on the future of the disputed territory.

The army announced that 10,000 veterans of independence fighting against the Dutch are being armed on Ambon and other islands of the Molucca chain some 150 miles off the western tip of New Guinea.

The announcement closely followed a report from a high government source that Indonesia is willing to promise West New Guinea eventual self-determination if the Dutch agree to let Jakarta take over the territory's administration in the meantime.

Col. Busjiri, military commander of the Molucca area, declared that the issuance of arms to the veterans and their assignment into combat units are preliminary steps to "the march forward to stop the Dutch-created Papuan state from operating and to hoist Indonesia's red and white flag in the territory."

President Sukarno ordered national mobilization last month and said he would invade West New Guinea unless the Dutch handed it over. He gave no indication of an invasion date.

But the high government source reported Wednesday night that Indonesia was prepared to drop its demand for immediate sovereignty over the primitive area and to offer the 700,000 Papuan tribesmen there the right of eventual self-determination.

He said the Netherlands in turn would have to give Indonesia administration of the territory. He called the proposal "the most liberal stand" his government could take.

The source said that the Indonesian shift resulted from pressure from the United States and Australia. Australia administers the eastern half of the island, the world's second largest.

A Dutch official in The Hague termed the report interesting but said it would have to be communicated through official channels before the Dutch government would comment.

Dutch Premier Jan de Quay on Tuesday dropped Holland's longstanding demand that Indonesia recognize the Papuans' right of self-determination as a condition to negotiations. Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio rejected this overture Wednesday, declaring that Indonesia would negotiate only if the Dutch agreed in advance to transfer control of the territory to his government. He said otherwise Indonesia would proceed with its invasion plans.

New Claims Show Increase for Week

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—New claims for unemployment compensation in Ohio totaled 26,613 for the week ended Dec. 30 as compared with 19,774 the previous week. Continuing claims representing those unemployed one week or more reached 104,796, up from 100,597 the previous week.

The weekly total of continuing claims compares with 171,745 on file in December of 1960 while the new claims total compares with 30,604 during that month last year.

Seasonal layoffs in construction and year-end inventory for many industries were two of the reasons cited by William Papier, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation statistician, for the substantial jump in claims.

Chaplins Expect Family Addition

VEVEY, Switzerland (AP) — Charlie Chaplin's wife Oona is expecting the couple's eighth child next summer, it was announced today.

A member of Chaplin's household said the birth was expected sometime in July.

At that time Chaplin will be 73 years old.

His wife, daughter of the late American playwright Eugene O'Neill, will be 37.

They have five girls and two boys.

The couple's first child was born in 1944.

Kennedy Visit Brings Wealth Of Overtones

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—President Kennedy plans a flying visit to Columbus Saturday to speak before a $100-a-plate birthday dinner for Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. Observers profess to hear all sorts of political overtones.

DiSalle, former national price stabilizer in the Truman administration, has announced he will not seek another four-year term as governor in the 1962 election. A move to draft him has been afoot since shortly after his Oct. 20 announcement that he was bowing out of the 1962 race.

A fund-raising dinner in honor of DiSalle's 54th birthday is the brain-child of Ohio Democratic Chairman William L. Coleman, an ardent advocate of the draft-DiSalle movement. Most observers view the President's scheduled appearance at the dinner a master political stroke by Coleman.

But there are others who feel that, rather than encourage DiSalle to run again, President Kennedy really will ask him to stay out of the race and go to Washington, possibly in a cabinet position.

There seems to be little possibility that the President's appearance at the DiSalle dinner would clear the Ohio political air immediately. DiSalle has until Feb. 7 to decide whether to change his mind and make the 1962 race.

DiSalle indicated to The Associated Press today that he still has not decided on his future course.

Kennedy tentatively is scheduled to arrive in Columbus on a presidential jet about 5:30 p.m. Saturday and depart for Washington about 10 p.m.

Indian Party Vows To Regain Land

PATNA, India (AP)—The annual meeting of India's ruling Congress party opened today with a warning that Chinese Communists and Pakistanis must follow the Portuguese off Indian soil.

Party President Neelam Sanjiva Reddy was loudly cheered when he declared India is determined to end their occupation of Indian territory within a short time.

Turning to Prime Minister Nehru, the party head, Sanjiva Reddy said the entire nation is behind the government in whatever steps it takes to regain Indian territory.

IRS Lists Table For Deductions

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ohio sales tax payments made during the year may be deducted from federal income tax returns at a rate based on gross income computed by the Internal Revenue Service.

IRS has issued a table of deductions ranging from $19 on gross income under $1,000 to $195 on income of $19,000 to $20,000.

Melvin J. Burton, Cleveland IRS district director, said the table reflected average sales tax payments by Ohioans for a year.

Before last year taxpayers were allowed to deduct 1 per cent of their income with a maximum of $100 for payment of sales taxes on normal purchases.

Burton said sales taxes paid on such large purchases as cars, household appliances and fur coats were still deductible but could not be based on the table IRS issued.

been hoping to release the 32nd and 49th by June 30. Some smaller units may be demobilized before then.

The Army has estimated it would cost some $70 million to organize, equip and maintain two more divisions in the remaining six months of this fiscal year. Officials said this can be done out of funds already in hand.

The cost for the next fiscal year has been calculated at about $165 million. Money requests for this purpose will be included in the new defense budget, due to go to Congress later this month.

Congo Flood Waters Recede

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—Congo River flood waters are receding, the U.N. Command reported today, and large-scale relief operations are under way to repair damage from the worst flood in the river's recorded history.

The crisis point now is Matadi, near the Atlantic, where the rampant river has cut off the port from the town. All shipping has been halted.

"We expect this situation to start easing by the weekend," said Alessandro Corradini, the U.N. flood relief director, "so that we will be able to reactivate river traffic—the lifeline to the interior."

A large train of supplies is being prepared—paid for by a $10,000 check from the U.S. government—to carry provisions to Coquilhatville and dozens of jungle villages cut off by the torrents for the past fortnight or more.

The U.S. Air Force is flying five power generators from Europe to flooded towns to get basic communications and essential electric installations working.

Two Soviet plane loads of medical relief supplies, the first aid the Soviet Union has offered to the Congo since the late Patrice Lumumba was in power, have not yet arrived. One was reported detained at Khartoum, capital of Sudan, because it had no permission to fly over the country and no clearance to land at Khartoum.

The special ceremony was held at the bedside of the Tennessee mountain man who won the Medal of Honor for his legendary exploits in World War I.

JFK Putting Final Touches On Union Talk

President's Florida Stay Near End; Trip To Columbus Slated

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — President Kennedy concentrated today on weaving together his State of the Union Message—his accounting to Congress of what shape the country is in and what he believes should be done about it.

There were no engagements on Kennedy's program as he neared the end of his sojourn on Florida's society coast.

Contrary to previously disclosed plans, signs appeared that Kennedy would leave Palm Beach for Washington late Friday. An announcement on his travel schedule was expected today.

The President will fly to Columbus on Saturday to address a fund-raising birthday dinner for Ohio Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. He may go there from Washington instead of directly from Palm Beach, as originally planned.

While in the capital, Kennedy may meet Saturday with Democratic congressional leaders.

Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson is due back in Washington on Saturday. He left Palm Beach Wednesday for Johnson City, Tex., after he and the administration's top defense officials conferred with Kennedy on Army reorganization and the strategic outlook for 1962.

From their meeting came word that Kennedy has ordered the Army to form two new permanent divisions, one armored and the other mechanized infantry. Their activation should permit troops of Wisconsin's 32nd and Texas' 49th National Guard divisions to go home later this year, Kennedy announced. The 32nd and 49th were called to duty last October as part of the armed forces buildup precipitated by East-West tensions.

Theodore C. Sorensen, special counsel to the President, remained in Palm Beach to assist Kennedy with the State of the Union Message. Congress reconvenes next Wednesday, and Kennedy is expected to deliver the message in person next Thursday or Friday. He has scheduled a news conference for Jan. 15.

Kennedy and the First Lady took Johnson, Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara, Deputy Secretary Roswell L. Gilpatric and Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, the President's special military adviser, for a cruise aboard the yacht Honey Fitz Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Kennedy changed to a blue and white bathing suit and donned a skin-diving jacket for a bit of water skiing. As the Honey Fitz drifted lazily, she whipped gracefully through gentle swells for about five minutes behind a speedboat.

White Paper Indicting Cuba As Threat To Be Distributed

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department plans wide distribution in Latin America of a new U.S. white paper indicting Cuba as a serious threat to hemisphere security and to non-communist nations everywhere.

The department had one eye peeled on a forthcoming foreign ministers meeting of the Organization of American States as it made the indictment public Wednesday. It depicted Cuba as so solidly in the communist sphere that 80 per cent of its foreign trade is with the Soviet bloc and that it has received $60 million to $100 million worth of Soviet bloc arms.

These weapons, the U.S. document said, have enabled Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to support guerrilla operations in other American countries.

The hemisphere foreign ministers will meet Jan. 22 in Punta De Este, Uruguay, to consider possible joint action against Cuba. A two-thirds majority, or 14 votes, will be needed to impose economic

Terrorism Mounts In North Africa

ALGIERS (AP)—The underground French right-wing Secret Army Organization called Wednesday night for a general mobilization of European settlers for a last-ditch fight to keep Algeria French.

Terrorism mounted in the North African territory with 37 persons slain Wednesday in attacks by both Europeans and Moslems, bringing the toll for the first three days of the year to at least 60 dead and more than 130 wounded.

Handbills calling on the settlers to prepare to fight were posted as the belief spread that the way was at last open for an agreement between the De Gaulle government and the Algerian rebels to end the seven-year-old war in Algeria. The handbills gave no further instructions but a pirate radio broadcast earlier in the day predicted victory for the Secret Army in 1962.

Terrorism surged up in most major Algerian cities. The attacks were indiscriminate and followed no particular pattern. It was believed the Moslem nationalists were making a show of strength to influence the secret talks under way for several weeks between the French and the Nationalists. And the European extremists appeared trying to foster the idea that France could not enforce an independence agreement against the French settlers' determined resistance.

Three persons were killed and 30 wounded by grenades thrown into a crowd of Moslems leaving a movie house in Constantine Wednesday night.

Record Spending Listed in Ohio For Fiscal Term

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—State Auditor James A. Rhodes reported today that Ohio closed out the first six months of the fiscal year with a record expenditure of $863,643,104.

The cost figures for the period ending Dec. 31, 1961, represented an increase of $18,239,684, or 2.1 per cent, over the total expenditures of $845,403,420 for the same period of 1960, the previous peak for a six-month operation.

Rhodes said December expenditures alone amounted to $153,720,023, a 32.8 per cent increase over the actual expenditures for December of 1960.

Receipts, including federal funds and bond sales authorized by constitutional amendments and subsequent action of the state sinking fund commission, amounted to $884,743,313. But Rhodes said this figure included $74 million in obligations issued by the commission, of which $12 million was in capital improvement bonds and $62 million in major thoroughfare construction bonds.

Rhodes' report said that expenditures, together with unpaid obligation of slightly more than $13 million due the teachers' and school employees' retirement systems, as of last November, makes for a total operating deficit of nearly $27.5 million.

Rebel headquarters in Tunis made a conciliatory gesture in a statement Wednesday declaring: "The provisional Algerian government is animated by a sincere desire to achieve a realistic solution, a solution that would take into account France's interests."

"Independence of the Algerian people and its entire sovereignty over all of its territory should be conciliated with the interests of France."

The statement was distributed as a "political bulletin" by the official rebel agency, Algerit Presse Service.

Observers in Tunis believed the statement was a forerunner of an announcement concerning the opening of formal peace negotiations between the De Gaulle government and the Nationalists.

High French sources in Paris said the secret talks now going on deal with the possibility of a cease-fire followed by a transitory period leading to Algerian independence.

Party Split Is Avoided by Withdrawal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Withdrawal of Rep. Richard Bolling, D-Mo., from the race for majority leader and tentative approval of a new policy committee have averted a possible session-opening split among House Democrats.

Bolling's statement Wednesday that he would not seek the majority leadership being vacated by Rep. John W. McCormack of Massachusetts left next week's caucuses of House Democrats without a controversial issue.

It cleared the way for unanimous selection of Rep. Carl Albert of Oklahoma as the party floor leader to succeed McCormack, who has no party opposition to replace the late Sam Rayburn as speaker.

McCormack's election at the initial House session next Wednesday may not even be contested by Republicans. Whether the GOP will go through with the formality of nominating Minority Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana for speaker may not be decided until early next week.

In any event, Halleck would have no chance of election, the vote traditionally being along straight party lines.

Bolling had the support of some House liberals when he announced last November that he would seek the majority leadership. However, not enough colleagues rallied behind his standard and he pulled out of the contest.

"Developments in the last few days convince me that I do not have a chance to win," Bolling told newsmen.

Bolling said he was unable to get solid support in several states with big Democratic delegations. He estimated that at the time of his withdrawal he had from 70 to 80 sure votes and 30 to 40 "possibles"—not enough to win in a caucus of 258 Democrats.

He said he considered his failure to make a winning race a defeat for House liberals. Bolling said that while he regarded Albert a liberal, the Oklahoma man had "reservations" when it came to legislation dealing with civil rights and oil and gas.

Bolling said he was not a candidate for majority whip to succeed Albert and would not accept that position, considered third in the Democratic chain of command in the House. Rep. Hale Boggs of Louisiana reportedly has the inside track for the post.

Bolling's withdrawal coincided with reliable reports that Democratic leaders, with White House backing or even prodding, had given the go-ahead to re-establishment of a House Democratic steering or policy committee.

A group of liberals known as the Democratic Study Committee has been agitating for creation of a policy committee to give the liberals more of a voice in party decisions.

If created, the committee would serve in an advisory capacity to the Democratic leaders but would have no binding authority. Its chairman presumably would attend the weekly White House meeting of congressional leaders.

Hint of Talks Fails To Halt Army Buildup

Action against Dutch Looms Unless Jakarta Demands Are Settled

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Indonesia stepped up its arms buildup today off the shores of Dutch-held West New Guinea despite reports that President Sukarno's regime was ready to offer the Netherlands a compromise on the future of the disputed territory.

The army announced that 10,000 veterans of independence fighting against the Dutch are being armed on Ambona and other islands of the Molucca chain some 150 miles off the western tip of New Guinea.

The announcement closely followed a report from a high government source that Indonesia is willing to promise West New Guinea eventual self-determination if the Dutch agree to let Jakarta take over the territory's administration in the meantime.

Col. Busjiri, military commander of the Molucca area, declared that the issuance of arms to the veterans and their assignment into combat units are preliminary steps to "the march forward to stop the Dutch-created Papuan state from operating and to hoist Indonesia's red and white flag in the territory."

President Sukarno ordered national mobilization last month and said he would invade West New Guinea unless the Dutch handed it over. He gave no indication of an invasion date.

But the high government source reported Wednesday night that Indonesia was prepared to drop its demand for immediate sovereignty over the primitive area and to offer the 700,000 Papuan tribesmen there the right of eventual self-determination.

He said the Netherlands in turn would have to give Indonesia administration of the territory. He called the proposal "the most liberal stand" his government could take.

The source said that the Indonesian shift resulted from pressure from the United States and Australia. Australia administers the eastern half of the island, the world's second largest.

A Dutch official in The Hague termed the report interesting but said it would have to be communicated through official channels before the Dutch government would comment.

Dutch Premier Jan de Quay on Tuesday dropped Holland's longstanding demand that Indonesia recognize the Papuans' right of self-determination as a condition to negotiations. Indonesian Foreign Minister Subandrio rejected this overtone Wednesday, declaring that Indonesia would negotiate only if the Dutch agreed in advance to transfer control of the territory to his government. He said otherwise Indonesia would proceed with its invasion plans.

New Claims Show Increase for Week

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—New claims for unemployment compensation in Ohio totaled 26,613 for the week ended Dec. 30 as compared with 19,774 the previous week. Continuing claims representing those unemployed one week or more reached 104,796, up from 100,597 the previous week. The weekly total of continuing claims compares with 171,745 on file in December of 1960 while the new claims total compares with 90,604 during that month last year.

Seasonal layoffs in construction and year-end inventory for many industries were two of the reasons cited by William Papier, Bureau of Unemployment Compensation statistician, for the substantial jump in claims.

Stock Mart Trade Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued higher in active trading early this afternoon although prices were below their best of the day.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .70 at 262.90 with industrials up 1.40, rails up .50 and utilities unchanged.

Rails followed through briefly on their strong rally which paced Wednesday's market rise, then a number of leading carriers fell victim to short-term profit taking.

Motors were briskly traded and the Big Three showed plus signs. Nonferrous metals, oils, aerospace issues, drugs and selected issues also moved higher. Some of the tobacco as well as other issues which made big gains in 1961 were subjected to further selling to cash long-term profits.

Steels were mixed. Certain-Teed, which had a net gain of 40 1/4 points in 1961, was clobbered by further profit taking and traded about 3 points lower. Brunswick also came under selling pressure, showing a loss of 2 points or so.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .29 at 725.72. Prices were mostly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were higher. U.S. government bonds were steady.

Flying Object Said To Be Fiery Meteor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Port Columbus weatherman, Walter Van Etten, said today that a fiery flying object which stirred excitement in a number of areas in Ohio Wednesday night was probably a meteor.

Moving with a greater speed than a jet plane, the green-orange ball was reported seen about the same time in Columbus, Dayton, Lima and Cincinnati.

Van Etten said descriptions furnished indicated the object was a meteor. Reports were received by the weather bureau, Lockbourne Air Force Base and police. An Air Force spokesman said the object is under investigation.

Paul D. Carroll of Columbus, an Air Corps reserve navigator, furnished this description: "It looked just like a ball of green and orange, flashing red. It was traveling southwest from the north; it fizzled out in about three seconds. The time was 6:09 p.m. I would have thought it a jet exploding, only it moved faster than a jet."

Other observers thought it was traveling more toward the west from an easterly direction. A number of Lima people reported seeing the object.

Air Guardsmen Said Getting Job Done Overseas

ETAIN, France (AP)—Maj. Gen. Winston P. Wilson, deputy chief of the U.S. National Guard Bureau, said today recalled National Guardsmen overseas were getting their job done despite relatively austere conditions.

Wilson is making a 2 1/2 week tour of military bases where former air guardsmen are serving in the Air Force.

Wilson talked primarily Wednesday with men from Ohio and said he had also visited men from Alabama, Tennessee, Arizona, Missouri, South Carolina and New Jersey, so far. He said their overall attitude and determination to do a good job far overshadowed complaints of a few about living conditions.

The former guardsmen were brought to Europe in connection with the buildup of military force due to the Berlin crisis. They are stationed in France, West Germany and Spain.

Cuba Delegate To Be Accepted By Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Roman Catholic Church disclosure that Fidel Castro and his top officials have been excommunicated will not keep the Vatican from accepting a new Cuban ambassador, nor will it keep the Cuban government from sending him.

Vatican sources said today Luis Amado Blanco y Fernandez, named by Castro to the ambassadorial post vacant more than a year, would be received in line with diplomatic protocol.

The Cuban Foreign Ministry said in Havana Wednesday after disclosure of the excommunication that Blanco y Fernandez, a Spanish-born dentist and journalist, would leave for the Holy See Jan. 9.

Blanco y Fernandez' name appears on the 1962 list of diplomatic representatives accredited to the Vatican. Sources said the list took some time in preparation and his name would not have been included if there were plans to reject him.

A canon law expert in the Vatican secretariat of state disclosed Wednesday that Castro and top officials of his pro-Communist regime had been excommunicated. The action against the Cuban dictator, who was raised a Roman Catholic, apparently was taken some months ago, probably after the expulsion from Cuba in September of Bishop Eduardo Boaz Masvidal and 135 priests.

The Vatican expert, Archbishop Dino Staffa, said it was automatic under two sections of canon law: for impeding bishops in their work and for using violence against clergymen.

Unlike many of his rodent cousins, the ground hog does not store food for the winter. Instead, he batters on greens all summer and autumn. Then he sleeps through the cold months, resting up for another war on spring vegetation.

OSP Post Made 1456 Arrests During 1961

State Patrolmen of Circleville Post No. 65 made a total of 1,456 traffic arrests during 1961 according to a statistical report released today by Sgt. S. L. Adomaitis.

A break down of the traffic arrests showed that 190 of the total were made following auto accidents, whereby motorists were cited to appear in court.

Fifty-three motorists were arrested by local patrolmen during the year for operating a motor vehicle under the influence of intoxicants; 227 persons were apprehended for misdemeanors, and 17 felony arrests were made by the patrol during the year.

Other activity conducted by the local patrol post in 1961 included the apprehension of 11 motorists for leaving the scene of an accident; a total of 13 hit-skip accidents were investigated during 1961.

ELEVEN uniformed patrolmen and three dispatchers are now stationed at the post, which was opened here in November 1960.

The most recent addition of manpower was Dispatcher R. L. Wolfe, formerly of Newark, who was assigned here last week.

Sgt. Adomaitis said today that local patrolmen had addressed approximately 4,200 persons in 1961. Twenty-seven talks were presented to school groups in the county; 22 appearances were made by patrolmen at civic group meetings; three farm groups were addressed and talks were given to 16 industrial groups.

Although the number of arrests seems high, a total of 4,018 warning tickets were issued to motorists which could have been citations to appear in court.

The detailed report stated that 386 persons were given assistance by patrolmen on Pickaway County highways during the year and that uniformed men worked a total of 20,070 1/2 hours.

The State Highway Patrol auxiliary, working with regular patrolmen, put in a total of 1,483 hours. Sgt. Adomaitis commented today that the post is "getting its feet on the ground and activity is beginning to increase each month."

Stock Mart Trade Higher

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market continued higher in active trading early this afternoon although prices were below their best of the day.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up .70 at 262.90 with industrials up 1.40, rails up .50 and utilities unchanged.

Motors were briskly traded and the Big Three showed plus signs. Nonferrous metals, oils, aerospace issues, drugs and selected issues also moved higher. Some of the tobacco as well as other issues which made big gains in 1961 were subjected to further selling to cash long-term profits.

Steels were mixed. Certain-Teed, which had a net gain of 40 1/4 points in 1961, was clobbered by further profit taking and traded about 3 points lower. Brunswick also came under selling pressure, showing a loss of 2 points or so.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was off .29 at 725.72. Prices were mostly higher on the American Stock Exchange.

Corporate bonds were higher. U.S. government bonds were steady.

Flying Object Said To Be Fiery Meteor

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A Port Columbus weatherman, Walter Van Etten, said today that a fiery flying object which stirred excitement in a number of areas in Ohio Wednesday night was probably a meteor.

Moving with a greater speed than a jet plane, the green-orange ball was reported seen about the same time in Columbus, Dayton, Lima and Cincinnati.

Van Etten said descriptions furnished indicated the object was a meteor. Reports were received by the weather bureau, Lockbourne Air Force Base and police. An Air Force spokesman said the object is under investigation.

Paul D. Carroll of Columbus, an Air Corps reserve navigator, furnished this description: "It looked just like a ball of green and orange, flashing red. It was traveling southwest from the north; it fizzled out in about three seconds. The time was 6:09 p.m. I would have thought it a jet exploding, only it moved faster than a jet."

Other observers thought it was traveling more toward the west from an easterly direction. A number of Lima people reported seeing the object.

Cuba Delegate To Be Accepted By Vatican

VATICAN CITY (AP)—The Roman Catholic Church disclosure that Fidel Castro and his top officials have been excommunicated will not keep the Vatican from accepting a new Cuban ambassador, nor will it keep the Cuban government from sending him.

Vatican sources said today Luis Amado Blanco y Fernandez, named by Castro to the ambassadorial post vacant more than a year, would be received in line with diplomatic protocol.

The Cuban Foreign Ministry said in Havana Wednesday after disclosure of the excommunication that Blanco y Fernandez, a Spanish-born dentist and journalist, would leave for the Holy See Jan. 9.

Blanco y Fernandez' name appears on the 1962 list of diplomatic representatives accredited to the Vatican. Sources said the list took some time in preparation and his name would not have been included if there were plans to reject him.

A canon law expert in the Vatican secretariat of state disclosed Wednesday that Castro and top officials of his pro-Communist regime had been excommunicated.

The action against the Cuban dictator, who was raised a Roman Catholic, apparently was taken some months ago, probably after the expulsion from Cuba in September of Bishop Eduardo Boaz Masvidal and 135 priests.

The Vatican expert, Archbishop Dino Staffa, said it was automatic under two sections of canon law: for impeding bishops in their work and for using violence against clergymen.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Your Judgement Shows!

DEAR ABBY: I am an intelligent girl. I hold down a good job, but need a little help with my love life. I have been going with a very eligible man for several months. I know he is crazy about me, and he is the man I want to marry. He can give me everything I want in life — social position, financial security, and the works. I am having trouble getting him even to talk about marriage. I have given him all the encouragement a man could want. I have led his horse to water. Now, how do I make him drink?

ANXIOUS TO WED
DEAR ANXIOUS: You can't — so take off the spurs, sister. This "horse" could turn out to be a camel.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is married to a very peculiar girl. Last month my husband suddenly fell ill and we rushed him to the hospital for an emergency operation. I wrote our son telling him about it, but we heard nothing from him. Finally, when his father was out of danger, I telephoned our son to tell him the good news. He said he didn't know his father had been sick!

Then his wife wrote us a nasty letter saying she never gave our son the letter because she "didn't want him worrying about any of his folks," and "please not to write him any more bad news." Can you imagine the nerve of that girl! What do two elderly parents do in a case like this?

BADLY HURT
DEAR HURT: Call your son, person-to-person, and let him know what is going on. If he wants to put up with this kind of censorship from his wife, let him know you can do. But if he is interested in knowing of your welfare, ask HIM how you may reach him without any interference.

DEAR ABBY: Once in a while a member of our family will go to bed early to get some much needed sleep. Then someone will drive by, and even though it is as late as 10:00 P. M. they will ring the bell saying, "The lights were still on." I think this is a waste of a lot of gall. What do you do with callers who don't know any better than that?

JUST PLAIN MAD
DEAR MAD: Freeze them out with a chilly reception and it will be a hot day in December before they pull that stunt again.

CONFIDENTIAL TO AMY F., FAHER O'H., and MRS. D. D. K.: I am returning your money. Sorry, but I do not sell my own books. If your local bookstore doesn't have DEAR TEEN-AGER, ask them to order it for you.

Are things rugged? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and don't forget a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Jack E. Linton Named Head Of Heart Fund

The appointment of Jack E. Linton, 425 Avon Drive, as general chairman of the 1962 Heart Fund campaign here, was announced today by the Pickaway County Chapter of the General Ohio Heart Association.

In this capacity, Linton will supervise the organization of the county-wide campaign which will be conducted here and throughout the county during the month of February.

"Heart and blood vessel diseases are the leading cause of death in our county, our state and nation. They are also the leading cause of disability," Linton said, in speaking of the gravity of this health problem. "All of us are familiar with one or more of these diseases. We have seen them in our own families, or in the families of friends."

"Research is the only effective weapon to combat this problem, and research is the heart of the Heart Association's program."

THE MORE than one million Heart Fund dollars which have been invested in research at Central Ohio institutions since 1950 by the Central Ohio Heart Association have contributed abundantly to progress in saving hearts through new methods of diagnosis, treatment and prevention, he explained.

During 1961, the COHA awarded $137,315 in 29 research grants-in-aid. These allocations represent the largest number of projects as well as the greatest dollar support by the Association in a given year, he pointed out, adding that the total research allocation, including fellowships, was $158,230. Furthermore, Heart Fund dollars support broad programs of public and professional education and community service which "bring the benefits of research back to all of us," Mr. Linton continued.

"Although heart diseases are still the nation's Number One health enemy, many research leaders believe we are on the verge of significant breakthroughs which will ultimately lead to control of the heart diseases. We who live in Pickaway County can help speed that day of victory. Our Heart Fund dollars will make it possible to expand the research needed to save thousands of lives — perhaps our own."

"The Heart Fund is a great crusade in which we all can participate through giving and serving as volunteers," Linton added.

Failures on Decline
At Kent University
KENT, Ohio (AP)—Kent State University officials credit a decline in failures during the first quarter of the school year to a new admissions policy initiated last fall.

Dr. George A. Bowman, Kent president, said 453 students were dismissed at the close of the first quarter, compared with 542 dismissed the previous year.

He said Kent tightened up admissions last fall, turning down applications of students who had a high school record lower than C.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Your Judgement Shows!

DEAR ABBY: I am an intelligent girl. I hold down a good job, but need a little help with my love life. I have been going with a very eligible man for several months. I know he is crazy about me, and he is the man I want to marry. He can give me everything I want in life — social position, financial security, and the works. I am having trouble getting him even to talk about marriage. I have given him all the encouragement a man could want. I have led his horse to water. Now, how do I make him drink?

ANXIOUS TO WED
DEAR ANXIOUS: You can't — so take off the spurs, sister. This "horse" could turn out to be a camel.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is married to a very peculiar girl. Last month my husband suddenly fell ill and we rushed him to the hospital for an emergency operation. I wrote our son telling him about it, but we heard nothing from him. Finally, when his father was out of danger, I telephoned our son to tell him the good news. He said he didn't know his father had been sick!

Then his wife wrote us a nasty letter saying she never gave our son the letter because she "didn't want him worrying about any of his folks," and, "please don't write him any more bad news." Can you imagine the nerve of that girl! What do two elderly parents do in a case like this?

BADLY HURT
DEAR HURT: Call your son, person-to-person, and let him know what is going on. If he wants to put up with this kind of censorship from his wife, there is nothing you can do. But if he is interested in knowing of your welfare, ask HIM how you may reach him without any interference.

DEAR ABBY: Once in a while a member of our family will go to bed early to get some much needed sleep. Then someone will drive by, and even though it is as late as 10:00 P. M. they will ring the bell saying, "The lights were still on so we knew everyone was still up." I think this is a whole of a lot of gall. What do you do with callers who don't know any better than that?

JUST PLAIN MAD
DEAR MAD: Freeze them out with a chilly reception and it will be a hot day in December before they pull that stunt again.

CONFIDENTIAL TO AMY F., FAHER O'H., and MRS. D. D. K.: I am returning your money. Sorry, but I do not sell my own books. If your local bookstore doesn't have DEAR TEEN-AGER, ask them to order it for you.

Are things rugged? For a personal reply, write to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif., and don't forget a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Decision against Airplanes Means Problems for Tony

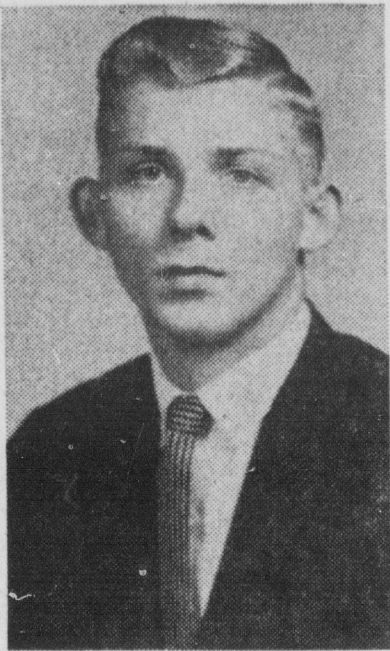

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—As far as Tony Curtis is concerned, the Wright brothers could have skipped the whole thing. Curtis recently returned from locations of "Taras Bulba" in Salta, Argentina. He came back the hard way, via train to Buenos Aires, boat to New York, train to Hollywood. Travel time: two weeks vs. one day by air. Tony doesn't fly.

High Court Breaks Admission Freeze At State Schools

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Supreme Court broke an administration freeze on admissions to state industrial schools yesterday. The unanimous decision said the state has a clear duty to accept minor wards committed after a juvenile court hearing. Juvenile Judge Benjamin S. Schwartz of Hamilton County was granted a writ of mandamus requiring the Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction to accept commitment of a 16-year-old Cincinnati youth. Mental Health Director Robert A. Haines had refused to accept the youth under a freeze and a county quota system on admissions ordered last Aug. 15 by Gov. Michael V. DiSalle. The administration said the system was imposed to relieve overcrowding at the Lancaster Boys Industrial School and the Delaware school but remained in effect at Lancaster where the inmate population dropped from about 850 to just over 500, the institution's rated capacity mark. At Delaware, the number of inmates dropped from about 300 to the capacity level of 200.

world, the reason being that he is married to a flying type, a beautiful chick named Janet Leigh. "Janet flies, I don't; it's as simple as that," says Tony. "Except that it isn't that simple. Whenever we go on a trip separately — whoosh! The rumors start. We had a fight. We separated. We're getting a divorce. "Janet usually arrives before I do because she flies. So maybe it's New York and she wants to see some shows, so she calls up a friend of mine to take her out. Whoosh! The tongues start wagging. "As a matter of record, we are better off than we have ever been. I don't mean we don't have our differences; we do. But we've been married 10 years now, and as far as I can see, the first 10 years are the easiest." Though the rumors fly when he doesn't, Tony has no intention of giving up his groundling ways. "I don't intend to get more than 60 feet off the ground at any time," he remarked. "I guess you might call it a phobia, a fear of crashing. I'll tell you when it started. "It was during those early days at Universal, when I made all those personal appearance tours. They'd have me visiting 20 cities in 20 days, flying in any kind of plane in any kind of weather. I figure I used up all my luck in those days."

Failures on Decline At Kent University
KENT, Ohio (AP)—Kent State University officials credit a decline in failures during the first quarter of the school year to a new admissions policy initiated last fall. Dr. George A. Bowman, Kent president, said 453 students were dismissed at the close of the first quarter, compared with 542 dismissed the previous year. He said Kent tightened up admissions last fall, turning down applications of students who had a high school record lower than C.

Jack E. Linton Named Head Of Heart Fund

The appointment of Jack E. Linton, 425 Avon Drive, as general chairman of the 1962 Heart Fund campaign here, was announced today by the Pickaway County Chapter of the General Ohio Heart Association.

In this capacity, Linton will supervise the organization of the county-wide campaign which will be conducted here and throughout the country during the month of February.

"Heart and blood vessel diseases are the leading cause of death in our county, our state and nation. They are also the leading cause of disability," Linton said, in speaking of the gravity of this health problem. "All of us are familiar with one or more of these diseases. We have seen them in our own families, or in the families of friends. "Research is the only effective weapon to combat this problem, and research is the heart of the Heart Association's program."

THE MORE than one million Heart Fund dollars which have been invested in research at Central Ohio institutions since 1950 by the Central Ohio Heart Association have contributed abundantly to progress in saving hearts through new methods of diagnosis, treatment and prevention, he explained.

During 1961, the COHA awarded $137,315 in 29 research grants-in-aid. These allocations represent the largest number of projects as well as the greatest dollar support by the Association in a given year, he pointed out, adding that the total research allocation, including fellowships, was $158,230. Furthermore, Heart Fund dollars support broad programs of public and professional education and community service which "bring the benefits of research back to all of us," Mr. Linton continued.

"Although heart diseases are still the nation's Number One health enemy, many research leaders believe we are on the verge of significant breakthroughs which will ultimately lead to control of the heart diseases. We who live in Pickaway County can help speed that day of victory. Our Heart Fund dollars will make it possible to expand the research needed to save thousands of lives — perhaps our own. "The Heart Fund is a great crusade in which we all can participate through giving and serving as volunteers," Linton added.

Less Unity May Be Needed

An interesting and unique plan for the future of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization appears in the Air Force and Space Digest Magazine. Paul L. Peeters, the author, suggests that the key to a strong NATO may be less unity rather than more.

This apparent paradox Peeters, a Belgian-American professor of economics and government, explains in detail. The present insistence on absolute unity, he says, means that each major NATO partner has a veto an Allied policy.

The Soviets, he notes, are alert to take advantage of the resulting Allied vacillation. He cites the Indochina War, the 1955 crisis of Quemoy, Laos and the Congo as instances when a dogmatic Allied unity was exploited by the communists.

Contrarily, the Lebanon trouble in 1958 and the later Quemoy crisis "were handled briskly and successfully because... one ally could act with a free hand to meet the situation as it arose."

Peeters recommends that individual nations be permitted to take effective and independent action without the appearance of conflict with other NATO members. "Every situation likely to divide and to weaken the West," he says, "also is a situation that makes contradictory demands on Western policy and demands a diversified approach."

NATO nations should, according to Peeters, encourage development of national striking forces, to spread the West's deterrent over the entire Atlantic area; encourage two-nation relationships among members; insulate and separate the tasks that can only be accomplished through national effort.

This is a mere sketching of a plan for the "rebirth of NATO," as Peeters calls it. But his ideas are worth consideration in the light of past and present troubles, feuds and crippling disagreements among the Allies.

Invite Must Come Quick

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP) — If Elsa Maxwell wants me to fill in as a fourth at bridge with her and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor anytime in 1962, she'd better name the time and place now.

Even then it's doubtful if I can oblige. My social schedule is terribly, terribly crowded.

Isn't yours? Isn't everybody's? My I've never seen so many worthwhile things that must be observed, attended or celebrated if one is to keep one's head above water in the social swim.

My Baedeker in such matter is Chases' Calendar of Annual Events. This year it lists a record number of 1,037 special days, weeks and months to commemorate—200 more than last year.

If one celebrated them all consecutively, it would require 18 years, 3 months, 2 weeks and 6 days. But only the social-climbing riffraff try to celebrate everything.

Those of us who value a real place in society must carefully pick and choose.

Perhaps you'd like to glance at my own schedule for the next six months? I'm sure the late Emily Post would find it fundamentally sound. Everyone in our set approves.

Well, I started on the first of January with international Take a Deep Breath Day, as I believe it is the duty of all of us to take a more conscientious interest in world affairs, don't you?

Right now I'm also supporting the University of Detroit's Silent Record Week. The idea: You fight noise by playing a silent record over and over.

All I have down for the rest of the month is Robert E. Lee's birthday and — oh, yes — large Economy Size Week. The latter will enable those of us at the top to encourage the masses in the virtues of thrifty buying.

February is fairly barren except for Weight Watcher's Week, and the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln, George Washington and Susan B. Anthony.

In March we are concentrating on Red Cross Month—we're donating some of our best blue blood; Save Your City Week, and St. Patrick's Day.

April is a giddy time, what with Make it Yourself With Wool Month, Bike Safety Week, and Honey for Breakfast Week.

May is noteworthy for Correct Posture Week, National Tavern Month — after all Patrick Henry and Thomas Jefferson drank in taverns; Be Kind to Animals Week, and Self-Denial Week.

For June our set has decided on a Spartan program and will celebrate only National Ragweed Control Month, Fresh-up Soda Bath Season, and National Humor Week.

Among the other festivities we are passing up during the first half of the year are Guitar Week, National Loudspeaker Week, National Buttermilk Bread Month, National Peanut Week, Pickle Ways for Lenten Days, and National Welded Products Month.

After all, you do have to draw the line somewhere.

State Department Review

By George Sokolsky

Frank L. Kluckhohn has had a wide experience as a newspaperman and government official and knows the State Department well. He does not heap the blame for State Department failures on the Secretaries of State but describes the mechanism of the Department in an article in the January "Reader's Digest" which makes it clear beyond doubt that something drastic must be done to revise, reorganize, redirect the staff of the State Department.

Citing chapter and verse, Kluckhohn shows how men in lower positions prevented Secretaries of State from becoming aware of the data which was essential to them. This does not apply only to the Kennedy Administration but has been continuous for years.

Kluckhohn describes the situation as follows:

"There are now 23,000 persons on State's payroll, the controlling group being the 3628 Foreign Service Officers. Typically, a young FSO steps into the Department direct from college. For six to eight years he stamps visas or does routine embassy chores while being shifted around the world. Even as he accumulates seniority and begins to assume 'responsibilities,' he rarely has to make an individual decision. Whatever reports he turns out are initiated by so many persons that he doesn't have to worry about being blamed personally if things fail to go right. In fact, his basic technique for advancement in the bureaucratic morass comes to consist of avoiding the displeasure of his immediate superior, or identification with any controversial action — even when the avoidance may mean ignoring a problem that could build up to a disaster."

Kluckhohn indicates how the young official is trained to avoid getting into trouble. His first lesson is "Don't rock the boat." This, of course, is true in big business and in universities and wherever there are large organizations of men. The problem that faces the individual is promotion without risk of hurting a superior or upsetting a regime. It is so easy to be squeezed on the escalator of achievement. The man above can kick the rising personality off the ladder; the man below can trip him as he moves upward.

The rising personality cleverly avoids interference or sudden emergencies. He takes his strides slowly, even if it damages the country. The man who moves out of step can do infinite damage to himself.

Kluckhohn gives us his number two rule: "Avoid making any decision for which you may be held personally responsible." This requires the responsible personality always to mark time so that if anything goes wrong he can blame someone else. The easiest one to blame is the Secretary of State; the public will believe that he took the wrong steps because he is the big man in the picture. How could a little gnat cause so much trouble? But the little ones do cause trouble, lots of it. They get in the way of things. They talk too much. They bubble over. They need to be spanked and no one wants to spank them. The President protects himself by having a staff in the White House to screen what comes from State and the CIA but the Secretary of State is a daily work-horse on the job who has day by day responsibilities and who cannot duck issues. All sorts of dispatches are signed in his name and decisions are taken for which he is directly and personally responsible. As few as a half dozen bone-heads can trip him up.

Secretary of State Hull, for instance, specialized in tariff questions and too often overlooked broader problems, so that the President or the Under Secretary was handling matters which rightly should have been the Secretary's. This explains why the London Economic Conference at the beginning of the Roosevelt regime was such a failure. Secretary Hull was left out altogether. Raymond Moley, President Roosevelt and Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau were reaching decisions about which the Secretary of State knew nothing. In fact, Hull never knew anything about this most significant meeting out of which, in a large measure, grew World War II.

Similarly, Eisenhower was never adequately informed about the Castro situation. Kluckhohn describes how efforts were made to inform Eisenhower through his brother, Milton, and how these efforts failed. Little men stood in the way.

Much is being written and said on this subject but few constructive suggestions are made. Obviously, it is necessary to maintain a Foreign Office Force of trained men; at the same time, it is necessary to provide the top officials with precise information and to give them flexibility of decision and action.

A MAN, LATER identified as Tunis Conquy, was walking down a southern road one day when, caught in an unexpected downpour, he sought shelter in a farmhouse.

The friendly folks there invited him to join them for dinner. Said the hostess, "The meat on the plate on the left comes from a North Carolina piggie; the ham on the other plate comes from a little piggie from South Carolina. Which do you prefer?"

Whereupon Mr. Conquy replied (what a way to repay fine old Southern hospitality!): "Either one, ma'am. Any pork in a storm."

Imagine! Change of life in a few hours — and before her 25th birthday, too!

Mrs. M. knows. Surgeons had to remove her ailing womb and ovaries. And wham! — the change!

Sensing the loss of female hormone production, her pituitary gland went wild. It poured rivers of chemicals into the circulation to whip up ovary activity.

The pituitary didn't know that both ovaries were gone.

Those pituitary chemicals triggered hot flushes, cold sweats and chills. During night-time flushes, Mrs. M. would kick off her blankets and wake up shivering! A suffocating feeling would drive her to an open window for fresh air.

The sudden change hit faster and harder than ordinary change of life.

Often the doctor can replace those missing hormones to tide you over. But that's not enough for moody worriers. Just because she couldn't have babies, Mrs. M. felt twice her age!

Fears and flushes can leave you dizzy, lightheaded and spinning, with nerves all jangled.

A thinking doctor will cool those flushes with hormones and calm your frenzy. He may talk about those three wonderful children you already have. Or how you can find tots and toddlers that need new parents.

If you must create, write or draw posters. Think up new ideas for your church or community. You can still give birth to some spanking — new fund-raising plan for your pet drive.

The thinking doctor will help you talk out your blues and fears. In the operating room, he'll remember which organs you need for a normal life. He'll look carefully before deciding which ones must come out. Then he can tailor the operation to both needs.

NEW YORK (AP)—Wall Street is admitting today that prosperity can bring its own peculiar headaches.

The growing number of Americans who are buying stocks—or wondering about buying them—and the record number of companies offering stocks and other securities to the public for the first time is keeping brokerage and investment houses pleasantly busy.

It is also giving Wall Street a big job of self-policing—in addition to, and perhaps to beat to the punch, official investigations of stock market practices.

Washington naturally is casting its eye on the transgressions, discovered or suspected. Wall Street points out in mitigation that the big increase in the volume of securities and the transactions involved make the percentage of such transgressions small.

But officials of the exchanges and of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., are urging member brokerage and investment houses to mind their conduct.

They are anxious, just as Caesar was in the case of his wife, to see that the Street is above reproach.

Total sales in 1961 on the New York Stock Exchange topped a billion shares for only the second time and were barely under record 1929. Several times that many shares are estimated to have changed hands on the over-the-counter market — nationwide and involving many times as many shares as are listed on the exchanges.

There was excitement enough in the listed shares at times, and in some unlisted ones that had been traded over-the-counter for years.

But much of the excitement was in the new issues which the public could buy for the first time.

These reached a record volume in the closing months of 1961, the Securities & Exchange Commission reports. In the last six months corporations filed 1,224 registration statements, offering $8.1 billion of securities publicly. In the first half of the year there were 1,121 statements filed, and in the second half of 1960 there were 709.

A record 70 per cent of the offerings in the last half of 1961 were by companies going to the public for the first time.

A few, but a spectacular few, of these offerings rose quickly to much higher prices than those set at the offering—and usually fell as fast. These are the ones, known as "hot issues" which the SEC is eyeing balefully.

Public buying and selling of these was marked. But there was a steady increase reported in stock ownership generally—either individually or through participation in mutual funds. And stocks of a number of companies whose securities had been traded for years had some sudden ups and downs laid to unconfirmed rumors.

As 1962 starts, member brokerage firms of the New York Stock Exchange are under fresh admonition to use "more than ordinary diligence" in the acceptance of directorships in companies whose securities the firm helped introduce to the public. They are reminded that they aren't to hold back any stocks of such offerings for themselves, employees or members of their families.

The National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., a semi-official group that helps police broker-dealer firms, also is urging brokerage houses to avoid charging too much for selling unseasoned stocks. It is looking into such firms' expense allowances and stock options, as well as sales commissions.

With an eye on the SEC and possible congressional investigation, Wall Street's own police are urging brokers to remember what happened to Caesar's wife — SHE GOT BOUNCED.

Less Unity May Be Needed

An interesting and unique plan for the future of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization appears in the Air Force and Space Digest Magazine. Paul L. Peeters, the author, suggests that the key to a strong NATO may be less unity rather than more.

This apparent paradox Peeters, a Belgian-American professor of economics and government, explains in detail. The present insistence on absolute unity, he says, means that each major NATO partner has a veto an Allied policy.

The Soviets, he notes, are alert to take advantage of the resulting Allied vacillation. He cites the Indochina War, the 1955 crisis of Quemy, Laos and the Congo as instances when a dogmatic Allied unity was exploited by the communists.

Contrarily, the Lebanon trouble in 1958 and the later Quemy crisis "were handled briskly and successfully because... one ally could act with a free hand to meet the situation as it arose."

Peeters recommends that individual nations be permitted to take effective and independent action without the appearance of conflict with other NATO members. "Every situation likely to divide and to weaken the West," he says, "also is a situation that makes contradictory demands on Western policy and demands a diversified approach."

NATO nations should, according to Peeters, encourage development of national striking forces, to spread the West's deterrent over the entire Atlantic area; encourage two-nation relationships among members; insulate and separate the tasks that can only be accomplished through national effort.

This is a mere sketching of a plan for the "rebirth of NATO," as Peeters calls it. But his ideas are worth consideration in the light of past and present troubles, feuds and crippling disagreements among the Allies.

Invite Must Come Quick

NEW YORK (AP) — If Elsa Maxwell wants me to fill in as a fourth at bridge with her and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor anytime in 1962, she'd better name the time and place now.

Even then it's doubtful if I can oblige. My social schedule is terribly, terribly crowded.

Isn't yours? Isn't everybody's? My I've never seen so many worthwhile things that must be observed, attended or celebrated if one is to keep one's head above water in the social swim.

My Baedeker in such matter is Chases' Calendar of Annual Events. This year it lists a record number of 1,037 special days, weeks and months to commemorate—200 more than last year.

If one celebrated them all consecutively, it would require 18 years, 3 months, 2 weeks and 6 days. But only the social-climbing riffraff try to celebrate everything.

Those of us who value a real place in society must carefully pick and choose.

Perhaps you'd like to glance at my own schedule for the next six months? I'm sure the late Emily Post would find it fundamentally sound. Everyone in our set approves.

Well, I started on the first of January with international Take a Deep Breath Day, as I believe it is the duty of all of us to take a more conscientious interest in world affairs, don't you?

Right now I'm also supporting the University of Detroit's Silent Record Week. The idea: You fight noise by playing a silent record over and over.

All I have down for the rest of the month is Robert E. Lee's birthday and — oh, yes — large Economy Size Week. The latter will enable those of us at the top to encourage the masses in the virtues of thrifty buying.

February is fairly barren except for Weight Watcher's Week, and the birthdays of Abraham Lincoln, George Washington and Susan B. Anthony.

State Department Review

Frank L. Kluckhohn has had a wide experience as a newspaperman and government official and knows the State Department well. He does not heap the blame for State Department failures on the Secretaries of State but describes the mechanism of the Department in an article in the January "Reader's Digest" which makes it clear beyond doubt that something drastic must be done to revise, reorganize, redirect the staff of the State Department.

Citing chapter and verse, Kluckhohn shows how men in lower positions prevented Secretaries of State from becoming aware of the data which was essential to them. This does not apply only to the Kennedy Administration but has been continuous for years.

Kluckhohn describes the situation as follows:

"There are now 23,000 persons on State's payroll, the controlling group being the 3628 Foreign Service Officers. Typically, a young FSO steps into the Department direct from college. For six to eight years he stamps visas or does routine embassy chores while being shifted around the world. Even as he accumulates seniority and begins to assume 'responsibilities,' he rarely has to make an individual decision. Whatever reports he turns out are initiated by so many persons that he doesn't have to worry about being blamed personally if things fail to go right. In fact, his basic technique for advancement in the bureaucratic morass comes to consist of avoiding the displeasure of his immediate superior, or identification with any controversial action — even when the avoidance may mean ignoring a problem that could build up to a disaster."

Kluckhohn indicates how the young official is trained to avoid getting into trouble. His first lesson is "Don't rock the boat." This, of course, is true in big business and in universities and wherever there are large organizations of men. The problem that faces the individual is promotion without risk of hurting a superior or upsetting a regime. It is so easy to be squeezed on the escalator of achievement. The man above can kick the rising personality off the ladder; the man below can trip him as he moves upward.

The rising personality cleverly avoids interference or sudden emergencies. He takes his strides slowly, even if it damages the country. The man who moves out of step can do infinite damage to himself.

Kluckhohn gives us his number two rule: "Avoid making any decision for which you may be held personally responsible." This requires the responsible personality always to mark time so that if anything goes wrong he can blame someone else. The easiest one to blame is the Secretary of State; the public will believe that he took the wrong steps because he is the big man in the picture. How could a little gnat cause so much trouble? But the little ones do cause trouble, lots of it. They get in the way of things. They talk too much. They bubble over. They need to be spanked and no one wants to spank them. All sorts of dispatches are signed in his name and decisions are taken for which he is directly and personally responsible. As few as a half dozen bone-heads can trip him up.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Through most of 1962 politicians of both parties will whop it up about next November's congressional elections but the outcome isn't apt to make much difference.

This is a conservative Congress and is likely to remain so whether the Democrats retain control and even pick up a few seats or there is an upset and the Republicans take charge.

Congress is divided into three main groups. There are some liberals and reactionaries in both parties. But the big, middle, dominant group in both is conservative.

And just because this is so, the further an individual stands back from American politics and looks at it the harder it is to distinguish a Democrat from a Republican.

The Democrats have a big majority in Congress where there are 437 House seats and 100 Senate seats.

This is the score: In the House—258 Democrats to 174 Republicans (with five vacancies in seats which had been held by Democrats); in the Senate—64 Democrats to 36 Republicans.

You might wonder, and justly so, with these big Democratic numbers, how large a Democratic margin President Kennedy feels he needs to get Congress to bless all his efforts.

Probably nobody, including Kennedy, could give a flat answer to this and for several reasons. 1. There's always some shifting around on issues but on any single one — when conservative Southern Democrats, about 90 of them, team up with very conservative Republicans against him, Kennedy is in trouble.

And, since the same Southern Democrats get elected repeatedly this balance of power isn't in for a change even if the Democrats gained some new members in November or the Republicans won control.

2. While the final voting is done on the floor of both Houses, the key to much of the success or failure of any administration lies in the committees of both houses and with their powerful chairmen.

And in Congress the conservative Southern Democrats dominate the committee chairmanships.

Of the 20 major committees, 12 have Southern Democratic chairmen. In the Senate, with 16 major committees, Southern Democrats are chairmen of 9.

3. On some very important issues the measure of success can depend on how much fight the President has in him for his program.

In 1961, on some of the most important issues, Kennedy has shown little fight or none. On medical care for the aged and federal aid to education, which ran into opposition inside and outside Congress, Kennedy went a good deal less than all out.

On civil rights—although he had promised in the 1960 campaign to make this one of the first orders of business if he won—he gave up altogether and didn't even offer any kind of program, mild or otherwise.

If he had, he might have angered the Southern Democrats whose support he wanted on other things.

And this year, before Congress even comes back into session, it seems clear he will bypass civil rights again, perhaps put up a fight for medical care, and maybe make only a mild stab at aid to education.

For six of his eight years President Eisenhower had to deal with a Congress by Democrats. They were conservative congresses, too and both the programs he offered and those that were passed were conservative.

If Kennedy had to deal with a Republican Congress—since he's been pretty conservative himself—the score would probably be no worse and no better than Eisenhower got from the Democrats.

The general for the Democrats in getting legislation through in the Eisenhower years was the then Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, now vice president.

If he had been president in 1961, instead of Kennedy, judging from the way both men have operated he probably would have handled Congress the way Kennedy did and gotten from it just about the same as Kennedy did.

Attorney General Is Subpoenaed

BOSTON (AP) — Atty Gen Robert F. Kennedy is among those who have been subpoenaed to appear in U.S. District Court in connection with a bookie raid on a Back Bay key shop.

The raid was the subject of the controversial television documentary film, "Biography of a Bookie Joint."

Also summoned to appear were Mortimer M. Caplin, who heads the Internal Revenue Service, and Dr. Frank Stanton, president of Columbia Broadcasting System which showed the film.

Emperor Grapes Are Fine Mixed in Salad with Cheese

By ALICE DENHOFF

There's a fine crop of Emperor grapes this winter and this delicious table grape is expected to be on the market until well into May.

Emperor grapes do well in salads, in pies and other dishes and also are good for weight-watchers, since one cup contains but 102 calories.

Here's a delicious way to use them in a salad.

MOLDED GRAPE AND ROQUEFORT CHEESE SALAD

2 env. unflavored gelatin
3/4 c. cold water
1 c. hot water
1 c. sugar
1/4 tsp. salt
3/4 c. fresh lemon juice
1 c. (8 oz.) creamy cottage cheese
3/4 c. crumbled Roquefort cheese
3/4 c. mayonnaise
2 c. green seedless grapes
Salad greens for garnish
Grapes for garnish.

Soften gelatin in cold water. Add hot water, sugar, salt and lemon juice. Stir to dissolve gelatin. Chill until about as thick as fresh egg whites.

Thoroughly beat together cottage cheese, Roquefort cheese and mayonnaise. Stir into gelatin mixture. Fold in grapes.

Turn into a 1-qt. mold. Chill until firm and ready to serve.

Turn out onto a serving plate and garnish.

Now for a recipe that calls for the fine Emperor grapes in delicious fruit tarts.

EMPEROR GRAPE TARTS

1 1/2 c. water
1/4 tsp. salt
3/4 c. sugar
1 tsp. lemon juice
3 c. diced firm ripe pears
2 c. Emperor grapes
2 tsp. cornstarch
3 tsp. water
1/4 tsp. grated lemon rind
6 5-in. baked tart shells

Mix the 1 1/2 c. water, salt, sugar and lemon juice in sauce-pan. Bring to boiling. Add pears; cook 5 min., or just until fruit is tender.

Remove from heat; cool.

Spoon pears with a slotted spoon into cold baked tart shells. Cut grapes in halves; remove seeds. Arrange over pears.

Blend cornstarch with the 3 tsp. water, stir into pear syrup. Cook until clear and of medium thickness.

Stir in grated lemon rind and pour into tart shells over fruit. Chill.

Serves 6.

For something a bit special in the fruit cup line, try this combination of grapes, bananas and sour cream.

The recipe serves 6.

1 c. seeded Emperor grapes
2 large bananas, sliced
1 c. sour cream
3 tsp. sugar
Grated orange rind (optional)

Combine grapes, bananas, sour cream and sugar in a bowl. Toss lightly and chill.

Serve in sherbet glasses.

Garnish, if desired, with grated orange rind for a colorful touch.

Items 'Just Like Mommy's' Are Things Children Want

By ELEANOR ROSS

How often it happens! The youngsters are showered with expensive toys for Christmas and it isn't very long before the fine array is neglected and back they go to old favorites!

It seems that most children quickly lose interest in many "can't fail" toys because they have little or no connection with reality. It doesn't take a child guidance expert to tell a mother that little girls like to play with things that are "just like the ones Mommy uses."

And that is why the toy departments have on sale an increasing stock of all sorts of miniature household items—stoves, carpet sweepers and laundry equipment that includes miniature irons, ironing boards, drying racks and even a tiny but correctly scaled automatic washer-dryer combination that actually washes and spins clothes.

Then there is a variety of house-cleaning equipment such as floor mops, carpet sweepers, dustpans, brushes, brooms, sponges and even battery-operated vacuum cleaners.

A gift item that did well, and is expected to do well right through the year, is a miniature bathinette or a baby bath set consisting of plastic bathtub, bassinette and covered diaper pail.

Just in case you haven't realized it, there's another advantage of these "Just Like Mommy's" toys.

That's the fact that they provide a wonderful opportunity for teaching a little girl a few basic facts about good house-keeping.

Four or five isn't too young to learn about the importance of cleanliness about the house. Maybe it's sneaky, all right, but if you start "brain-washing" your daughter early enough, she may even turn out to be a help around the house by the time she gets to be a sub-teen!

Fill drained canned peach halves with mincemeat and bake in a moderate oven about 20 minutes or until the fruit is thoroughly hot. Serve with whipped cream.

Delicious compote: thawed frozen peaches mixed with fresh orange and grapefruit sections.

Across the expanse of 116 bowling lanes over 580 bowlers can simultaneously enjoy the facilities of Willow Grove Park Lanes. It is hailed as "world's largest" bowling center.

Plush Willow Grove Center Shows Pindom's Prosperity

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of four articles on bowling, a sport which is enjoying fabulous growth.

By CENTRAL PRESS

Typifying bowling's monumental growth and widespread acceptance, Willow Grove Park Lanes spreads 116 Brunswick Gold Crown lanes and Automatic Pinsetters across the landscape just northeast of Philadelphia.

It stands there as the world's largest bowling center, and it represents a new high point in the growth of a sport in which nearly 25,000,000 Americans now participate.

Its architecture and appointments likewise represent new apexes in the design trend of bowling establishments, a prime factor in the rising popularity of the sport during the past decade.

You enter Willow Grove Lanes under a 100-foot winged-shaped arch, the largest free-standing parabolic arch in the world.

GOING through a massive concourse, you confront the registration desk backed by a glassed-in billiard room. The tables in this room are another departure from the ordinary. Instead of being the familiar green, they feature grey and beige cloths and orange and blue exteriors.

From the back end of the billiard room your eyes span the 116 lanes, 58 on each side. To the right the bowling equipment features tangerine and white color combinations.

Dietzel Has No Comment

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The big pull came from the South today in the tug of war between Louisiana State University and the Army over the football coaching services of LSU's Paul Dietzel.

Tom Dutton, a member of the LSU board of supervisors which hires and fires football coaches, said he would ask the board to take legal action against Dietzel if he asked to be released from the remaining four years of his $18,500 a year contract.

There were reports from West Point that Dietzel had asked the board to meet to consider such a request. Not so, said Dutton. The board has not been asked to meet.

As for Dietzel—the 38-year-old coach who guided LSU to the national championship in 1958 and to three bowl games in the last four years—well, he wasn't saying anything.

"My only comment, for what it's worth, is no comment," he told The Associated Press Wednesday night. He would neither confirm nor deny (1) if he had asked the board to meet (2) if he had been approached by military academy authorities or (3) if he would fly to New York this week to confer with Army officials.

The Army fired Dale Hall several weeks ago. West Point athletic authorities apparently felt that Dietzel, a one-time aide to former Army Coach Earl (Red) Blaik, was the man to replace Hall.

The reported Army offer is a five-year contract calling for $20,000 yearly.

Sooners May Soon Be Grid Team of Old

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The University of Oklahoma Sooners, for years a terror of the college gridiron, made the greatest comeback of the 1961 season according to sports writers and sportscasters balloting in the annual Associated Press year-end football poll.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma Sooners, who won only three games, lost six and tied one in 1960, started the 1961 campaign in extremely low gear. The Sooners were defeated in order by Notre Dame, Iowa State, Texas, Kansas and Colorado for the longest losing streak in the school's history. They had lost nine of their last 10 games.

Then they began their comeback, and, playing like the Oklahoma powerhouses of old, won their last five games for a 5-5 season. The Sooners beat Kansas State, upset Missouri 7-0, stunned Army 14-8, and finished off against Nebraska and Oklahoma State. The word is out that Oklahoma must be reckoned with in 1962 after Wilkinson's rebuilding efforts.

Oklahoma led the balloting with 36 votes, while Notre Dame was next with 25. Louisiana State and Minnesota were tied for third with 19 votes each. Kansas had 17, and Columbia 10. Votes went to 36 colleges in the "comeback" category.

Pay-as-You-Go Hunting Now Available to Ohio Sportsmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Did you know that pay-as-you-go hunting is available to sportsmen in 54 preserves in 32 Ohio counties?

Hayden Olds, chief of the Ohio Division of Wildlife, points out that a licensed shooting preserve is within reach of every major Ohio city. Pheasant, quail, duck and chukar partridge are the game birds most often available in an open season that runs from Sept. 1 through April 30.

The division has a new pamphlet, "Shooting Preserves in Ohio," available by writing its publication branch, 1500 Dublin Road, Columbus 12.

Three Major Teams Unbeaten

Villanova Gets 12th With Seton Hall Win

The battle of the unbeaten wasn't. Villanova beat Seton Hall in a walk. Or, more appropriately in the case of the fleet Wildcats, a run.

Racing and driving, showing off their quick-handed defenders in their aggressive zone, the Wildcats blitzed the Pirates Wednesday night 99-67. Now there are just three undefeated major college basketball teams—Villanova (12-0), Ohio State (10-0) and Mississippi State (9-0).

Seton Hall, winner over four lesser opponents, was expected to face an unhappy moment of truth at the Villanova Field House against the nationally 5th-ranked Wildcats — and the issue was never in doubt.

Another member of the top 10, 8th-ranked Duke, smothered Penn State 95-55 behind the gunning of Art Heyman and Jeff Mullins. But 10th-ranked Bowling Green needed a pair of clutch free throws in the waning seconds to shade Western Michigan 73-72 in the Mid-American Conference opener.

Heyman's 36 points and Mullins' 24 were more than the Blue Devils needed against Penn State as they ran their record to 9-1. Bowling Green (9-1) and Western Michigan played a corker, with the lead changing hands seven times in the first half and 11 in the second. The vital foul shots were by Howard Komives, bringing a 72-72 tie, and Nate Thurmond's winner with two seconds to play.

Defending champion Texas Tech and the club that appears to be its toughest rival for the title, Arkansas, started off the Southwest Conference season with victories. Tech took the lead for good in the early stages and the Red Raiders cruised over Texas 77-66. Arkansas won its ninth in a row beating Texas A&M 64-59.

Dayton (9-1) came from behind in a 64-48 runaway against Xavier (Ohio). Marquette, swamped in its previous outing, rebounded by surprising DePaul 75-68.

Three teams, members of the elite 10 before losses skidded them out, were winners Wednesday night. West Virginia, back in the neighborly confines of the Southern Conference, blasted Virginia Military 101-79. Providence came out of a 4-game losing slump with a 56-54 decision over Brown. And St. Bonaventure, loser of two of its last three, overcame Belmont Abbey 85-68.

The Ohio Game Protector's Association will hold its annual meeting Friday, Feb. 9, at the Neil House in Columbus. It is held in conjunction with the League of Ohio Sportsmen's convention.

Beaver trapping will be permitted in five Northeastern Ohio counties from Feb. 15 through Feb. 28. Wildlife division men say the big rodents are becoming too abundant in some areas and are causing damage.

Legal limit is two beavers per season, for each trapper. Pelts must be tagged by the county game protector on or before March 5. Beaver trappers must also have a written affidavit from the landowner where beaver were trapped.

Counties open to trapping are Ashtabula, Columbiana, Mahoning, Portage and Trumbull.

A cannon will be used to shoot at Canada geese in Northeastern Ohio during the latter part of January—but all will be legal.

The cannon is merely used to launch a net which wildlife biologists hope will trap some of the honkers.

The trap will be operated at Mosquito Reservoir, Trumbull County. All geese caught in the trap will be tagged, then released.

A new ice fishing regulation in effect this year permits the use of up to six tip-ups. Only two were permitted in the past.

These are mechanical gadgets that send up a flag when you have a fish nibbling at your bait, and are used widely in some parts of the country.

Another ice fishing regulation, new last year, states, that, in inland waters, holes in the ice must not be greater than 12 inches in diameter.

Your 1961 fishing license is good until March 1, 1962. New licenses will go on sale about the middle of February.

Comiskey Name To Be Retained

CHICAGO (AP) — Although the last of the Comiskys has stepped out of the club, the home of the Chicago White Sox will continue to be known as Comiskey Park.

"Charles A. Comiskey—the Old Roman, as he was called—founded the White Sox and established them in Chicago," Allyn said. "The park was named for him but it is only fitting that his contributions to baseball should be so commemorated. The park will continue to be known as Comiskey Park."

Comiskey's grandson, also named Charles Comiskey, sold his interest in the club last month, ending the family's connection with the club that had endured for 60 years.

In leading National Football League scorers with 146 points in 1961, Paul Hornung of Green Bay tallied 49 points more than Philadelphia's Bobby Walston, the runner-up. Hornung had 146.

Huff's Sense Of Humor Still In Evidence

NEW YORK AP — Sam Huff, the New York Giants' rugged linebacker, may have lost a couple of teeth and a lot of pride in last Sunday's National Football League title game at Green Bay but his sense of humor emerged undamaged.

The 230-pound miner's son from West Virginia had nerve enough to show up at a press luncheon Wednesday honoring Green Bay's Paul Hornung as the most valuable player in the Packers' smashing 37-0 victory, and Huff stole the show.

Golf Greats Set for LA

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Golf's greatest players hit the rich money trail today in a $5,000 professional-celebrity prelude to the $45,000 Los Angeles Open.

The 72-hole main show gets under way Friday in this 36th annual winter classic as the pros launch a $2 million dollar tournament campaign for 1962. The setting again is the Rancho Municipal Golf Club which has par 36-35-71 for its 7,000-yard course.

Rancho is not regarded as particularly tough. But one of the best golfers in the world, Arnold Palmer, can eye one hole as extra menacing.

It was on the ninth hole in the first round a year ago that Palmer knocked four balls out of bounds and wound up with an atrocious seven-over par 12.

The former National Open and Masters champion is back again, along with the man who beat him out of the 1961 money-winning title, Gary Player of South Africa.

Special interest centers on the professional tournament debut of the 1961 amateur champion, Jack Nicklaus. The Ohio State University star finished second and fourth in the last two National Opens.

Salaries Raised

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Hamilton County Commission upped 17 key employees' salaries Wednesday, and in addition, 15 members of the Soldiers and Sailors Relief Commission received 5 per cent pay increases.

Dick Lynch of New York's Giants paced National Football League players in interceptions in 1961 with nine.

HEAD MAN NOW—A former star lineman at Tulane, Tommy O'Boyle (above), is the new head coach at Tulane, succeeding Andy Pilney, who resigned after the Green Wave had finished the season. A native of Gary, Ind., O'Boyle formerly coached at Kansas State, Duke and Miami before returning to the Tulane staff for the third time as an assistant.

Of his award, Hornung said, "It could have gone to any one of the Packers—to Bart Starr, who played a great game at quarterback; Ron Kramer, who caught two touchdown passes, or to the entire offensive line."

He added that he could not understand the downgrading of the Giants.

"We got every break in the book and capitalized on all of them. We respected the Giants, and still do. On any given day they can beat anybody. But it happened to be our day."

Huff said he couldn't understand why Hornung was receiving the sports car (from Sport magazine) for his role in the game.

"Paul wasn't the most valuable player for Green Bay—I was," he said. "I think everybody who saw the game will agree to that."

The Giant defensive star told about the eerie feeling of playing in the Green Bay stadium, surrounded by 41,000 fans, all of them hostile.

"When I got home, a friend told me he thought his television had gone dead when the Giant players were introduced," Sam drawled. "But it hadn't. When they called out our names—nothing but stony silence."

In a brief serious vein, Huff said he believed that one of the reasons the Giants took such a disgraceful licking was that they had spent too much of themselves in the last game of the regular season against the Cleveland Browns (a 7-7 tie).

Across the expanse of 116 bowling lanes over 580 bowlers can simultaneously enjoy the facilities of Willow Grove Park Lanes. It is hailed as "world's largest" bowling center.

Plush Willow Grove Center Shows Pindom's Prosperity

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of four articles on bowling, a sport which is enjoying fabulous growth.

By CENTRAL PRESS
Typifying bowling's monumental growth and widespread acceptance, Willow Grove Park Lanes spreads 116 Brunswick Gold Crown lanes and Automatic Pinsetters across the landscape just northeast of Philadelphia.

It stands there as the world's largest bowling center, and it represents a new high point in the growth of a sport in which nearly 25,000,000 Americans now participate.

Its architecture and appointments likewise represent new apexes in the design trend of bowling establishments, a prime factor in the rising popularity of the sport during the past decade.

You enter Willow Grove Lanes under a 100-foot winged-shaped arch, the largest free-standing parabolic arch in the world.

GOING through a massive course, you confront the registration desk backed by a glassed-in billiard room. The tables in this room are another departure from the ordinary. Instead of being the familiar green, they feature grey and beige cloths and orange and blue exteriors.

From the back end of the billiard room your eyes span the 116 lanes, 58 on each side. To the right the bowling equipment features tangerine and white color combinations.

Dietzel Has No Comment

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — The big pull came from the South today in the tug of war between Louisiana State University and the Army over the football coaching services of LSU's Paul Dietzel.

Tom Dutton, a member of the LSU board of supervisors which hires and fires football coaches, said he would ask the board to take legal action against Dietzel if he asked to be released from the remaining four years of his $18,500 a year contract.

There were reports from West Point that Dietzel had asked the board to meet to consider such a request. Not so, said Dutton. The board has not been asked to meet.

As for Dietzel—the 38-year-old coach who guided LSU to the national championship in 1958 and to three bowl games in the last four years—well, he wasn't saying anything.

"My only comment, for what it's worth, is no comment," he told The Associated Press Wednesday night. He would neither confirm nor deny (1) if he had asked the board to meet (2) if he had been approached by military academy authorities or (3) if he would fly to New York this week to confer with Army officials.

The Army fired Dale Hall several weeks ago. West Point athletic authorities apparently felt that Dietzel, a one-time aide to former Army Coach Earl (Red) Blaik, was the man to replace Hall.

The reported Army offer is a five-year contract calling for $20,000 yearly.

Sooners May Soon Be Grid Team of Old

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

The University of Oklahoma Sooners, for years a terror of the college gridiron, made the greatest comeback of the 1961 season according to sports writers and sportscasters balloting in the annual Associated Press year-end football poll.

Coach Bud Wilkinson's Oklahoma Sooners, who won only three games, lost six and tied one in 1960, started the 1961 campaign in extremely low gear. The Sooners were defeated in order by Notre Dame, Iowa State, Texas, Kansas and Colorado for the longest losing streak in the school's history. They had lost nine of their last 10 games.

Then they began their comeback, and, playing like the Oklahoma powerhouses of old, won their last five games for a 5-5 season. The Sooners beat Kansas State, upset Missouri 7-0, stunned Army 14-8, and finished off against Nebraska and Oklahoma State. The word is out that Oklahoma must be reckoned with in 1962 after Wilkinson's rebuilding efforts.

Oklahoma led the balloting with 36 votes, while Notre Dame was next with 25. Louisiana State and Minnesota were tied for third with 19 votes each. Kansas had 17, and Columbia 10. Votes went to 36 colleges in the "comeback" category.

Promoters of this giant bowling operation are four brothers, Sam, Perch, Moe and Max Hankin. They built the center as part of their massive suburban family recreation complex. An amusement park flanks the bowling center on one side. Other adjacent facilities include outdoor and indoor swimming pools, three picnic areas and a modern dance casino.

No idea or concept was over and their architects, Powers, looked as the Hankin brothers Daly, & DeRosa, of California, put together the most ultra-modern and unique bowling center in the world.

The scattering of the bowling pins is quieted by an off-white ceramic fissured acoustical tile that stretches from the pits behind Automatic Pinsetters down to the bowler areas. Cork and a heavy carpet contain the enthusiastic voices of bowlers approaching the lanes and at the scoring tables.

A modern nursery is complete with a life-sized rocking horse and half-sized Moby Dick whale to keep the youngsters entertained while Mom finishes her bowling.

TWO RESTAURANTS behind the lanes serve food and refreshments to the bowling-happy Willow Grove visitors.

Conversation pieces are also in abundance. The plush tri-level cocktail lounge and restaurant has as its main attraction a 500-gallon-a-minute waterfall cascading down a natural stone wall.

Diners may look out floor-to-ceiling windows into an eight-spout fountain illuminated with a constant changing rainbow pattern of red, orange, blue, white, and green lights. The fountain overflows into a pool where a gas jet shoots bright-colored flames over the waters.

Pay-as-You-Go Hunting Now Available to Ohio Sportsmen

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Did you know that pay-as-you-go hunting is available to sportsmen in 54 preserves in 32 Ohio counties?

Hayden Olds, chief of the Ohio Division of Wildlife, points out that a licensed shooting preserve is within reach of every major Ohio city. Pheasant, quail, duck and chukar partridge are the game birds most often available in an open season that runs from Sept. 1 through April 30.

The division has a new pamphlet, "Shooting Preserves in Ohio," available by writing its publication branch, 1500 Dublin Road, Columbus 12.

CHICAGO (AP) — Although the last of the Comiskeys has stepped out of the club, the home of the Chicago White Sox will continue to be known as Comiskey Park.

Arthur C. Allyn, club president, made the announcement today in response to a number of inquiries. "Charles A. Wilmington Tigers' Foe In SCO Tilt

Circleville's Tigers must prove themselves Friday night. The stage has been set for a show-down battle with Red and Black hopes for a contending spot in the South Central Ohio League race hanging in the balance against Wilmington.

The Hurricane, bidding for a repeat title grab with a current 4-6 loop ledger, boasts an impressive ability for "togetherness" in its most profitable hard-court sense.

Coach Jack Gill's cagers have developed a flashy offense with all the playing pieces falling into hardcourt puzzle no other SCOL team has been able to solve. Wilmington swept by Greenfield 83-37 in its opening test Dec. 1 and since then has riddled off decisions over Franklin Heights (66-33), Pleasant View (58-31) and Hillsboro (70-65).

The WHS crew has been idle since Dec. 22, but Gill sent his charges through a stiff set of tuneups during the last several days to guard against a letdown. Wilmington is reputed to possess razor-edge sharpness on ball control and a knack for speed. Circleville has been plagued with foot-work problems.

DESPITE the fact that coach Jack Weikerts Bengals have pulled down only two of four SCOL outings, Gill rates them respected opponents. The Wilmington mentor pointed out the CHS record includes three losses by a total of just six points.

The Tiger starting lineup should be about the same as in the past several games. Wilmington goes big-city Saturday, tangling with Toledo Libbey.

U2 Pilot Wakes On Hungry Side

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—U2 pilot Charles Stratton awoke from a six-hour sleep following a night perched in a cypress tree and asked, "Where can I get some oysters?"

The Air Force captain, 32, seemed more concerned with food than with his reconnaissance plane, whose shattered remains lay in a brush-covered, almost inaccessible part of the Pearl River swamplands on the Louisiana-Mississippi border.

Although he survived his 40,000-foot fall, nine hours in the cypress tree above the snake-infested marsh and a daybreak rescue with not a scratch, Stratton had been placed in the Keesler Air Force Base hospital for some rest. He had been awake 29 straight hours.

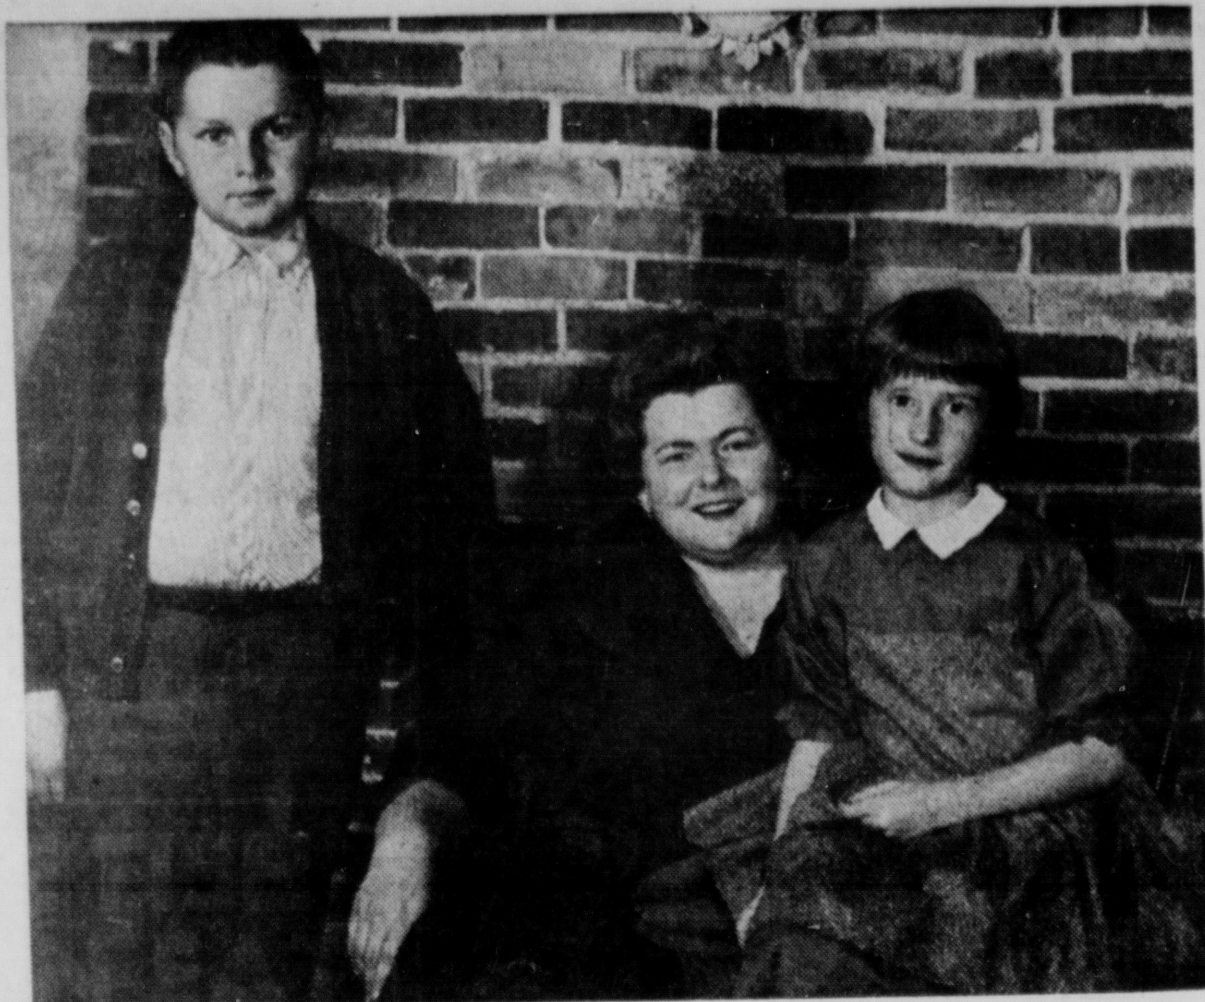

Asked about his flight, he said there wasn't much to it. Stratton normally flies the high-altitude U2s on weather detection missions as part of the Defense Department's high altitude surveillance program. Tuesday night's flight, however, was a navigational training flight from his home base, Laughlin Air Force Base, Del Rio, Tex., to Birmingham, Ala., and back.

"The plane began to malfunction—I think in the electrical system—and I decided not to stay around," he said.

Bringing the craft down from about 60,000 feet to 45,000 feet, he flipped the ejection switch and shot himself out at about 9:40 Tuesday night.

"Everything happened so fast, I didn't see what happened with the plane," he recalled.

Apparently, Air Force officials said, there was an explosion. Residents of the area reported seeing a bright flash. When search parties reached the crash scene, all that was left of the U2 was a wing, and it was rapidly sinking into the swamp.

First Unemployment Study Facts Announced by Bureau

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Ohio Bureau of Unemployment Compensation released the first results today in a characteristics study of claimants for the 13-week temporary extended benefits program.

The study will be in four parts, and the report today disclosed that claimants during the week ending May 27, 1961, with histories of long unemployment, were primarily young men who are household heads with dependents.

The survey is being conducted jointly in Ohio by the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, the Department of Labor and the Bureau of Employment Security. Carried on in 1961 during the weeks ending May 27 and Sept. 23, it will be continued in 1962 during the weeks ending Jan. 20 and April 21.

Donald B. Leach, bureau administrator, said the study presents the first opportunity for a thorough nationwide analysis of the personal and economic characteristics of those out of work for a long time.

The first findings showed that 67 per cent, or nearly 40,000 of those claiming benefits under the temporary extension, were heads of households of one or more persons, and that 98 per cent of the primary earners and 15 per cent

Tobacco Co. Head Faces State Action

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—In connection with what he says is the first time the state has charged anyone with filing fraudulent cigarette tax returns, Atty. Gen. Mark McElroy has filed a criminal affidavit against Sherman Sharwell of Columbus.

The action, brought in municipal court Wednesday, seeks an indictment that could lead to a prison term for the head of the former Sharwell Tobacco Co.

A State Board of Tax Appeals case is pending against Sharwell, with the state seeking $1,083,018. The jobber allegedly reported and paid short on cigarette purchases.

A fire of unknown origin destroyed the tobacco firm's records in December, 1960.

Seat Belts Spare Motorist from Injury in Crash

Auto seat belts were attributed to the safety of a Reynoldsberg motorist involved in a two-car crash at about 5 p. m. yesterday on Route 665, near Shadeville.

Local Patrolmen of Post No. 85 reported that Don E. Reaver, 27, was not injured in the near head-on collision of two compact cars.

Taken to Lockbourne Air Force Base Hospital for emergency treatment were: Capt. David S. Corzilius, 28, Grove City, and his four-year-old son, Brian. Corzilius, operator of the second auto, is the son-in-law of Harold Clifton, 307 S. Court St. They were later released from the hospital.

Both vehicles were heavily damaged as a result of the accident, which occurred when Corzilius crossed the center line of traffic, Patrolmen said.

Corzilius was to be cited into court for driving left of the center line of traffic, a patrol spokesman added.

Short, Unhappy Life

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—It was a short and unhappy life for the Jacksonville Zoo's first gnu.

No sooner was the new arrival turned into its pen at the zoo Wednesday than it began butting the wire fence.

N. P. Baldwin, zoo superintendent, said the animal apparently broke its neck. The gnu cost $950 and wasn't insured.

Portugal's Stormy Six Years In U.N. Now Near an End

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Portugal had a tough time getting into the United Nations. Now, after six years of membership, it is talking about getting out.

Repeated vetoes by the Soviet Union, starting in 1946, shoved aside the Lisbon government's applications for membership. Admission finally came in 1955—30 years after the organization was set up—as part of a package deal which brought in new members with divergent outlooks.

The six years of membership have been so stormy that few diplomats here were surprised when Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar let it be known Wednesday that "Portugal will surely be among the first countries" to quit the U.N. He set no date, however.

No nation ever has resigned from the U.N.

A poor relationship between Portugal and a majority of the United Nations virtually ruled out any possibility of U.N. action to help the Salazar government when India seized Goa last month.

There was so little sympathy among Asian and African countries that Western leaders felt they would be fighting a lost cause if they tried to take the invasion before the General Assembly.

The breaking point could come later this month when the assembly is expected to condemn Portugal for asserted failure to heed an earlier U.N. appeal for major reforms in Portuguese Angola.

In the current assembly session, Portugal was condemned for refusing to give information on nonself-governing territories, as required by the U.N. Charter. The vote was 90-3 with only Portugal, South Africa and Spain voting against it. Portugal's Vasco Vieira Garin denounced the action as a move which would "encourage international lawlessness."

One of the byproducts of differences between Portugal and the United Nations has been a growing rift in the Salazar government's relations with the Kennedy administration. While the United States did take the lead in seeking Security Council action in the Goa case, it had voted for the Angola inquiry last spring. That touched off angry anti-U.S. demonstrations in Lisbon.

Wilmington Tigers' Foe In SCO Tilt

Circleville's Tigers must prove themselves Friday night. The stage has been set for a showdown battle with Red and Black hopes for a contending spot in the South Central Ohio League race hanging in the balance against Wilmington.

The Hurricane, bidding for a repeat title grab with a current 4-0 loop ledger, boasts an impressive ability for "togetherness" in its most profitable hard-court sense.

Coach Jack Gill's cagers have developed a flashy offense with all the playing pieces falling into hardcourt puzzle no other SCOL team has been able to solve. Wilmington swept by Greenfield 83-37 in its opening test Dec. 1 and since then has ripped off decisions over Franklin Heights (66-33), Pleasant View (58-31) and Hillsboro (70-65).

The WHS crew has been idle since Dec. 22, but Gill sent his charges through a stiff set of tuneups during the last several days to guard against a letdown. Wilmington is reputed to possess razor-edge sharpness on ball control and a knack for speed. Circleville has been plagued with footwork problems.

DESPITE the fact that coach Jack Weikerts Bengals have pulled down only two of four SCOL outings, Gill rates them respected opponents. The Wilmington mentor pointed out the CHS record includes three losses by a total of just six points.

The Tiger starting lineup should be about the same as in the past several games. Wilmington goes big-city Saturday, tangling with Toledo Libbey.

U2 Pilot Wakes On Hungry Side

BILOXI, Miss. (AP)—U2 pilot Charles Stratton awoke from a six-hour sleep following a night perched in a cypress tree and asked, "Where can I get some oysters?"

The Air Force captain, 32, seemed more concerned with food than with his reconnaissance plane, whose shattered remains lay in a brush-covered, almost inaccessible part of the Pearl River swamplands on the Louisiana-Mississippi border.

Although he survived his 40,000-foot fall, nine hours in the cypress tree above the snake-infested marsh and a daybreak rescue with not a scratch, Stratton had been placed in the Keesler Air Force Base hospital for some rest. He had been awake 29 straight hours.
